

October 11, 2016

To: Lou Anna K. Simon
Mark Dantonio
Tom Izzo

From: Which Side Are You On?

You have chosen to remain silent on the countless murders and crimes committed by the police. For as long as you remain silent, you too are murderers and criminals. As of now, it is clear you have chosen the side of anti-Blackness. We demand that as an institution, you release a statement in support of the Movement for Black Lives by Friday at 5 pm. Lou Anna K. Simon, Mark Dantonio, and Tom Izzo, we demand to know, which side are you on?

Conditions for Public Release

Make Your Statement Known to Campus

We demand you publicly announce your position on the front page of msu.edu, in addition to sending out a campus-wide email to students and faculty members.

Expanded Dialogue

Issue a press release to all major media outlets including but not limited to the State News, Lansing Journal, Free Press, and MLive, so as to make sure the world knows where you stand.

*Updates on demands and actions are being posted on
Our Facebook Page: <https://www.facebook.com/whichsidemsu/?fref=ts>*